

Part Time Teacher of Chemistry
Competitive salary plus benefits
2 or 3 days a week (with flexibility for the right candidate)
For September 2023
Permanent

Notting Hill & Ealing High School, one of London's leading independent day schools, has an exciting opportunity for an inspirational Teacher of Chemistry to contribute further to a flourishing Science Department in both its curricular and extra-curricular activities.

We are looking for a well-qualified graduate of Chemistry, with a passion for the subject and excellent subject knowledge, to teach highly motivated, talented girls throughout the school up to A Level. The successful candidate will have good organisational and time management skills. If you are a good communicator who can enthuse and inspire about the teaching of Chemistry, and the ways in which it can be further developed and encouraged we would be delighted to hear from you.

Teaching at NHEHS

"Teaching here is all about being able to have in-depth conversations with students about your subject and helping to enthuse them with the same passion as you have. Teaching at NHEHS is exactly what I imagined teaching would be like when I got my first teaching job; it's what teaching should be!"

- Head of Department

About the School
